Looking for a ride? We can help.

Use this resource guide to find the best transportation services for you.

Now in its 7th edition, the Getting There Guide, produced by the Denver Regional Mobility and Access Council (DRMAC), helps Denver area residents identify a variety of transportation options. The Getting There Guide is intended to help bridge the transportation gap of local citizens with mobility challenges, thus helping them live as independently as possible.

Need a more individualized approach to finding transportation?

Transit Options
Find the ride that's right for you.

Contact DRMAC's Transportation Information and Assistance Center at 303-243-3113 to receive a consultation about your transportation needs. Transportation Resources Specialists will consult with you on the phone –providing free one-on-one assistance to identify the transportation resources best suited for you.

Are you a Veteran? Contact DRMAC's Transportation Information and Assistance Center to explore transportation options for VA Medical Center and outpatient clinic appointments.

Visit DRMAC's website (www.drmac-co.org) and use TransitOptions, DRMAC's online interactive tool for identifying transportation resources. TransitOptions contains up to date information about what is available, depending on your needs and location.

DRMAC is the regional coordinating council for the Denver area with a vision of mobility and access for all. A project of the Colorado Nonprofit Development Center, DRMAC is funded in part by the Getting There Collaborative, a joint, multi-year transportation initiative of The Colorado Health Foundation and Rose Community Foundation.

*Please note, transportation provider information is subject to change.
DRMAC does not endorse any provider listed in this publication.*

Getting the most out of the Getting There Guide

The Getting There Guide is designed to help you find the best transportation solutions for your individual needs.

This Guide is organized by type of transportation provider and lists a variety of services available to Denver area residents. Learn more about your options on the right to help you get where you need to go.

- Traveling independently? Online trip planning tools help you explore a variety of options including bus, train, biking, and walking. Go to Online Trip Planning Tools, pg. 4.
- Interested in finding a ride from someone living near you? Some communities have volunteer drivers who provide transportation to medical or other appointments. Go to Volunteer Driver Programs, pg. 9-10.
- Do you prefer public bus and light rail systems? Fixed route options stop at consistent locations and operate on a frequent regular schedule. Go to Fixed Route, pg. 3-4.
- Still looking for the ride that's right for you? Private providers can often schedule transportation on short notice or tailor services to meet your individual needs. Go to Other Options, pgs. 11-14.
- Need to schedule a low-cost ride from your home? Human Service organizations provide rides to appointments necessary for healthy living. Fares are subsidized. Go to By Appointment, pg. 5-8.
